Mahopac Sniffs out 14-4 Win over Rival Carmel

Like a crazed hound dog, Mahopac junior D Sean Massett (17) -- a top pole in Section 1 -- sniffs out an attempt by Carmel’s stud freshman A Matthew Risley in the Indians’ 14-4 defeat of the rival Rams, who hung tough for three quarters last Friday before visiting Mahopac emerged from hibernation with a 9-2 fourth-quarter run to hunt the Rams down... see Boys’ Lax Notebook Saddle up, gang! The 2021 baseball campaign is headed toward the final turn before the stretch run, and a slew of Examiner-area teams are poised to make a run for the roses.

Class AA White Plains, Fox Lane and Carmel are all having huge seasons and will be strong contenders for the sectional title, provided they can challenge mighty Mamaroneck and knock the Dutchess title, provided they can challenge mighty Mamaroneck and knock the Dutchess region.

Likewise, Class A is wide open and there for the taking, and whoever’s to say it won’t be Yorktown pulling down its second sectional title since 1995 as the Huskers (11-1) continue to cruise under first-year boss C.J. Riefenhauser, the former big leaguer. The sleeper among us is Hen Hud, which knocked off Arlington to run its win streak to eight games before falling, 3-2, to John Jay CR Thursday. Likewise, Panas is mysteriously flying under the radar but has won more than 90% of its games against Class A opponents and has enough talent to seriously challenge.

In Class B, Briarcliff is hitting .474 as a team and pitching to the tune of a 1.25 ERA, so those numbers suggest the Bears (10-2) are still the team to beat.

In the CHSAA, Kennedy Catholic is doing serious damage and continues to be one of the strongest baseball programs in the region under Coach Fletcher despite consecutive losses to Iona Prep, which just might be the finest varsity baseball club in the Westchester/Putnam/Rockland/Dutchess region.

Like we said, saddle up!

CLASS AA

To say CARMEL is simply raking Rams, who are hitting over .350 as a team. In the host Rams’ 11-2 win over John Jay CR last Friday when starting P Tim Albano settled down after a shaky first inning to secure his first varsity win by going the distance with five hits allowed and two earned runs to go with five K’s. Carmel (10-2) crushed it at the plate, including Jack Sullivan (3-4, 2B, 2R HR, 3 RBI), Matt Demme (3-3, 2B), Brendan Murphy (3- run dinger, 4 RBI), Nick Montagna (3 RBI, 3B) and Jon McIntyre (2 hits).

Sullivan (.500 BA) picked the Rams up Saturday in their 17-2 rout of visiting Brewster, driving home five runs over the first four frames, giving him 23 RBI through 12 games. Carmel’s slick-picking junior SS Kevin Dall (3 hits) and Marcos Fernandez each knocked in a pair as the Rams cranked out 15 hits in just five innings. Senior OF/C Anthony Febo continued his torrid tear this week and is at .410 BA for the season.

CARMEL P Tim Albano settled down, went the route and delivers in his 1st varsity win, whiffing five and allowing two runs after shaky start.

by beating visiting Byram Hills, 10-1, behind Galef’s compete-game effort. The RHP fanned 10 over seven frames and did not allow an earned run. Gino Manicchio (2-3 4 RBL, 3-run HR) and Lucas Rodriguez (2-3, 2B HR) were huge behind him.

Ossining Coach Scott Deleso was impressed with Galef’s poise.

“He had an amazing performance,” the coach said. “He came out throwing strikes. He got ahead in the count and had hitters guessing all day, which led to his ten strikeout day. He challenged hitters all day and was a bulldog on the mound for us.”

MAHOPAC hasn’t had the banner season it was hoping for, but the Indians (3-10) are scratching and clawing under Coach Myk Lughauer. In a 2-1 win over Brewster Thursday, the Indians swept the Bears behind P Mikey Ambro’s 5 -1/3 innings, in which he did not allow and earned run before yielding to reliever Brandon Smith, who picked up his first win in relief when sophomore Joey Koch hit the game-winning sac fly in sixth. Craig Brandstetter had an RBI single and a key sac bunt to set up a run.

WHITE PLAINS won three more games to move to 9-2 and is a serious contender in a loaded Class AA field.

The Tigers started off with a 6-2 win over Suffern last Tuesday. Derek Diaz (6 innings, 2 earned runs) got the win while Mark Kent recorded the save. Nick Vendola (2 hits, 2 RBH), John Myers (2 hits, RBI, double, 2 runs) and Teddy Hauser (2 hits, RBH) led the offense.

White Plains then defeated Sleepy Hollow 15-7 with Declan Bruton (3 for 5, 4 RBI, 3 runs, home run, double), Diaz (2 hits, 4 RBL), Hauser (3 for 3, 3 runs), Chris McGaigue (2 for 4, RBL, triple) and Jake Dorchak (2 hits, 2 RBH) sparking them at the plate.

The Tigers recorded their fifth straight win with a 15-1 rout of Scarsdale at Purchase College on Saturday. Kent twirled a gem, tossing six innings of three-hit ball while striking out 11. Myers (3 for 3, 4 runs), Mason Lang (2 hits, 2 RBH) and Diaz (2 RBH) were the leaders offensively.

continued on next page
CLASS A

YORKTOWN is legit and we’ve known this while following their summer travel exploits the last few years in the Greater Hudson Valley Baseball League, which has translated into one heck of a start this spring for first-year Coach Riefenhauser’s Huskers. Reifenhauser returned to his Mahopac roots Saturday, where his retired No.7 is fastened upon the scoreboard, and won his first game back at Mahopac as a head coach for Yorktown. Down 7-3 to Mahopac, the Huskers rallied twice and secured a 14-8 win.

The first rally saw Yorktown go for five runs in the pivotal fourth to take an 8-7 lead when Tyler Pugliese (3-5, 3 runs, 4 RBI) doubled home a run and Kyle Zaslaw dropped a go-ahead RBI to left. Swaroop Pujari started the rally with a double and scored.

Scratching and clawing as previously stated, Mahopac tied it in the sixth when Nick Angeloni stroked a hard shot to right field to plate Joey Koch, but the Indians ran themselves out of further damage with a caught stealing.

The Huskers (17 hits combined) then went to town in extra innings, plating six runs when Pujari (4-5, 2 runs), who mashed all game, doubled to lead off the eighth. Nick Jacoby (3-4, 2 runs, 1 RBI) had his prints all over this game and followed with an RBI double for a 9-8 lead, what proved to be the game-winning knock. Jon Munoz (3-5, 3 runs, 1 RBI) singled and Brett Warden walked to load the bases. Pugliese, Jon Sica and Zaslaw (2-4, 3 RBI) all followed with RBI at-bats for a 12-8 lead, game over, with reliever Scott Weitman (5 K’s) allowing just one run in six innings.

“We have a great group of guys that all step up when needed,” Coach CJ said. “No one on this team is selfish and they are just playing the game hard for each other.”

Yorktown is getting contributions up and down the lineup, including Thursday’s 10-0 win over host Somers, in which Stephen Haglund went 4-4, with four RBI to support winning P Kevin Weitman, who worked six shutout innings of three-hit ball with nine K’s. Huskers SS Warden added two RBI and two runs while Zaslaw doubled home a run and scored twice. Yorktown rallied for a win in the opener of the home-and-home set with Somers, defeating the Tuskers, 8-6, after trailing 5-1 in the third. Warden (3-4, 3 doubles), Pugliese (2R HR), Zaslaw (solo HR) were up to support winning P Scott Weitman, who worked four frames in relief (0 ER, 4K).

None of what’s happening at Yorktown this spring is lost on the team.

“It has been incredible to be a part of this team,” Zaslaw said. “It all started when all of the boys put in work this winter in the gym and during preseason practices, we bought in early. When Coach CJ came in on the first day, we knew he meant business and it showed. We all see he is all in and we join him. He knows a lot of guys in the area, and they always ask him how the team is, and we are out there trying to back him up. We are off to a good start, but we know there is still a lot of work left and we aren’t satisfied. This team is special, and it’s a dream to be part of this my senior year.”

Somers recovered from the Yorktown series in Saturday’s 8-4 win over Lourdes when P Jack Guardino worked six frames, allowing two earned runs with five K’s. Senior slugger Jack Kaiser cracked a three-run yard bomb to lead a nine-hit parade.

HEN HUD’s eight-game win streak came to an end but before it did the Sailors notched one of their more impressive wins in recent memory, a 3-2 walk-off over visiting Arlington last Wednesday. Sailor senior Nick Hilshtey made it a long trip back to Lagrangeville for the Admirals when he cashed in the winning run in the bottom of the seventh. Starter Noah Lipton pitched 6 2/3 innings and Josh Shea got the final out in the top of the seventh to earn the win.

“The Arlington win was special, I’ll be honest,” Hen Hud skipper Van Voorhiotis said. “I never like to make one win more important than another, but it gives us a chance to look back and say we know we can compete with anyone. Arlington is a program we admire from afar, one of the best in the state, no doubt. It was the best regular season win our program has achieved over the last decade.

continued on next page

“We have a huge week ahead against some of the best teams in Class A in Panas twice, and Rye, so we need to bring it,” he added.

BYRAM HILLS

WALTER PANAS has had some impressive wins of late, including Wednesday’s 8-2 defeat of Byram Hills and Friday’s 2-1 win over reigning Class A champion LAKELAND.

Against the visiting Hornets, Panas sophomore P Jackson DiLorenzo was dealing dirty cards and giving Lakeland a glimpse of the future. The gas-chucking righty, who heats up regularly in the high-80s and dabbles in the low-90s, didn’t allow a run until the sixth, whiffed 12 and scattered three hits.

“He looked great,” Stafura said, “just kept pounding the zone and hitting his spots. Lots of swing and misses. Seemed like they couldn’t catch up to his 90-mph fastball. It’s extremely enjoyable watching him pitch, and playing the field behind him. We’re extremely excited for the future of Panas baseball.”

BYRAM HILLS rebounded from a three game losing streak with a 7-0 shutout of Class AA FOX LANE behind Bobby Chicoine on Saturday. Chicoine, a junior, went 5.2 innings for the win and added a grand slam in the sixth inning which shut the door on any hope of a Foxes comeback.

“Mike is one of my best friends and he’s the man,” Chicoine said. “I feel for him. He hadn’t been able to play on varsity. He hurt his elbow sophomore year and then of course COVID (cancelled last season), so it’s great to see him back on the mound and doing his thing.”

Yorktown’s Tyler Pugliese had a monster week for surging 11-1 Huskers.

Yorktown’s Brett Warden fires to first as Somers’ Matt Kapica slides into second in Huskers’ 10-0 win on Thursday.

Byram shortstop Brady Karp fires to first base in 7-0 win over Fox Lane.

Byram’s Bobby Chicoine looks toward the crowd after socking a grand slam in the sixth inning of the Bobcats’ win over the Foxes.
continued from previous page
myself start to guess what kind of pitch was coming."

Brady Karp and Jared Cohen each scored on a Fox Lane error to give Byram a 2-0 lead in the bottom of the first inning.

Tommy Soleiman pitched admirably for the Foxes in defeat, tossing 5.1 innings while striking out seven and allowing two earned runs.

The Bobcats and Foxes were scheduled to face off in another league showdown yesterday at Fox Lane.

Chicoine tossed a three-hitter in a 7-1 win over Eastchester on Monday. He struck out 10 and also went 2 for 4 with a homer and two RBI.

The Bobcats (7-6) then endured a three-game losing skid with losses to Panas (8-2), Rye (5-2) and Ossining (10-1), before breaking out against the Foxes.

“We just asked them to play with intensity and play hard-nosed baseball,” Valhalla coach Josh Wolfson said. “We had the bases loaded with no outs in the seventh inning in a 0-0 game on Wednesday and we didn’t get it done and they beat us. Today, we knew we had a good pitcher on the mound and if we hit a little bit, we knew we’d be OK. Marc was throwing strikes today and he has good velocity. When he gets ahead and he can mix in his secondary pitches he’s very effective.”

The Vikings scored five runs in the first three innings to pounce on the Panthers. Jason Rodriguez had two hits, two stolen bases and a run scored. Rossi added an RBI single and roped a double.

“We went after strikes,” Wolfson said. “We preached that if you get a first pitch strike, go get it. Put the ball in play and in high school baseball good things happen.”

Pleasantville bounced back with a 10-7 win over Putnam Valley on Saturday. Matt Satriale went 2 for 3 with a triple and two RBI. Will Lent added three hits and two RBI. Finnegan and Charlie Dispenza had an RBI each.

The 7-6 Panthers were shut out by BRIARCLIFF, 8-0, last Monday. Pleasantville has split all three of its league match-ups so Iorio is seeking more consistency from his young squad.

“We offered a young team that tends to be a common outcome,” Iorio said of splitting
continued from previous page

their league games. “We’ve experienced that before in the past. It’s just a matter of getting the mindset and with these young guys, letting them know that each day they have to handle each game by itself. We’ve struggled keeping that consistency and we’ve tried to explain to them every day that consistency is what’s going to allow us to be one of the better teams in our league. Right now we haven’t found that consistency. Once we do, we feel like we’ll have a good chance at being one of the top teams in Class B.”

Valhalla bested Pawling 9-1 on Saturday to move to 7-6. Michael Dawson (6.1, 7 Ks, no earned runs) led the Vikings on the mound while Kori Prosperino (2 for 4, 5 RBI) sparked them at the plate. The Vikings suffered a 6-3 league loss to Blind Brook to open the week.

“I think our starting pitching is phenomenal and if we hit a little bit, I think we’ll be a tough team to beat down the stretch,” Wolfson said.

Briarcliff picked up two league victories over WESTLAKE and won three out of four last week to improve to 10-2. In a 6-4 win over the host Wildcats on Wednesday, Jayden Amador had two RBI while Chris Beard went 3 for 4 with an RBI and two runs scored. Tom Poggi was 3 for 4 with two runs scored. Jack Manganello went the distance and struck out 10 for the win. Marc DeNunzio had two RBI for the Wildcats while Nick Mulvey added two hits and an RBI.

Two days later, Briarcliff defeated visiting Westlake 7-4 behind Poggi, who pitched five scoreless innings and had 10 Ks while allowing just one hit. He also had two RBI and two runs scored. Beard added two RBI and Max Haberman had an RBI and scored twice.

In the Bears’ shutout win over rival Pleasantville, Poggi was the star, going 4 for 5 with three RBI. He also tossed a complete game four-hitter while striking out 15 Panthers.

In a 12-8 loss to Bronxville on Saturday, Briarcliff received two RBI apiece from Marc Milano, Giulian Greco and Beard.

Mulvey had five RBI in Westlake’s lone win of the week, an 8-5 victory over Pawling on Thursday. Westlake started the week with an 8-6 league loss to Rye Neck. The Wildcats fell to Croton-Harmon 12-7 on Saturday to drop to 6-6 overall.

PUTNAM VALLEY had itself a week it would rather forget, dropping three games (two to North Salem and Pleasantville) while awaiting the final result of an 11-11 extra-inning suspended game with Pawling. Tiger IF Joey Maloney (2-3, 3 RBI, 2R, 3BB) was having a day against Pawling but will have to wait until the completion on May 26th to pad those numbers. Matt Jacobson (3-4, 2R, RBI) and Antonio Truglio (2-4, 2B, 2R, 2RBI) both had big days in a 10-7 loss to Pleasantville.

Mahopac senior IF Nick Angelino had two hits and two RBI in 14-8 loss to Yorktown.

Wildcats fell to Croton-Harmon 12-7 on Saturday to drop to 6-6 overall.

PUTNAM VALLEY had itself a week it would rather forget, dropping three games (two to North Salem and Pleasantville) while awaiting the final result of an 11-11 extra-inning suspended game with Pawling. Tiger IF Joey Maloney (2-3, 3 RBI, 2R, 3BB) was having a day against Pawling but will have to wait until the completion on May 26th to pad those numbers. Matt Jacobson (3-4, 2R, RBI) and Antonio Truglio (2-4, 2B, 2R, 2RBI) both had big days in a 10-7 loss to Pleasantville.
MAHOPAC senior Shannon Becker was up to her usual dominance in the circle last week, throwing four shutouts, including her fourth no-hitter of the season.

While everyone on the softball circuit is well aware of Becker’s brilliance on the diamond, Becker is more proud of her recent accomplishment -- being selected the Con-Ed Scholar-Athlete of the week (of 5/17).

Becker, who will attend Notre Dame in the fall and also play softball, put the award in perspective.

“As everyone always says, we are student-athletes,” Becker said. “The student part comes first. School and academics are very important to me. A lot of people overlook the academics with all the accolades, so being named the Con-Ed athlete of the week is very important to me. It’s nice to be recognized for how hard I work in school, as well as on the field.”

Mahopac was in two tight games as the Indians used a Michelle Dellamura RBI single to walk off against North Rockland, 1-0. Following 7-0 and 15-0 wins over Brewster, Becker and YORKTOWN’s Maya Servedio engaged in a windmilling duel. Mahopac generated two runs in the first inning and Becker no-hit an excellent Cornhuskers’ lineup for a 2-0 win.

In the victory over Brewster, Becker struck out 17, including her 900th career K. She also cranked a two-run homer.
Lanzer also smacked a two-run homer. Ava Lichtenberger added two doubles and Gabby Marino, Gianna Lafaro and Dellamura each drove in runs.

Mahopac scored its runs in the first inning, against Yorktown, on an RBI double from Ashley Usewicz and run-scoring single from Lauren Zecca.

Following its three wins, Mahopac improved to 12-0 on the season and is currently ranked No. 1 in Class AA in New York, according to the New York State Sportswriters Association Poll.

“Our team this year is definitely special,” Becker said. “I think each of us know our role on the team and execute what needs to be done to help us win. Everyone does their job and when we put it together, everything falls into place.

“We have gelled together very nicely and work together as a team so I think that helps with success.”

LAKELAND continued its excellent season with three wins in four games -- Yorktown (3-0), Fox Lane (11-0) and Walter Panas (3-0). The legend of Stella Bale continues to grow after she threw a no-hitter against Panas, her third of the season.

She also no-hit John Jay-Cross River and Yorktown (3-0), Fox Lane (11-0) and Walter Panas (3-0). The legend of Stella Bale continues to grow after she threw a no-

LANZER's Melendez had two hits.

Bale and Scotto each had two hits and a RBI against Yorktown and Leah Cohen collected two hits and scored a run.

Following its loss to Lakeland to open the week, YORKTOWN bounced back to beat SOMERS before running into LAKELAND's Maya Servedio pitched an excellent game against Mahopac, allowing the runs in the first inning. She finished with 12 strikeouts and reached base on an error. Servedio has rung up 101 strikeouts in 49 innings.

“Losing to Lakeland and Mahopac were okay losses in my eyes,” Yorktown coach Samantha Fernandez said. “My girls battled at the plate against two really good pitchers. And Maya threw very well against Mahopac.

“Maya and Lainie (Ornstein) have been doing a phenomenal job setting up batters and calling the games. I’m excited for Mahopac, again, Monday. Always love a good, competitive game. We are more than excited for our last five games -- Mahopac, Carmel, twice, and Brewster, twice.”

Yorktown, now 10-3 this season, hammered 18 hits against Somers, led by Kelly Jennings, who went 4 for 5 with two RBI and two runs scored. Alyssa Buck had a trio of threes -- three hits, three RBI and three runs scored. Servedio added two hits and drove in four runs. She also compiled eight strikeouts in three innings.

LANZER's Hannah Matusiak compiled eight strikeouts in three innings.

The loss was a 1-0 verdict, in eight innings, to Arlington. In the loss, Bale rang up 16 Panas hitters. She also no-hit John Jay-Cross River and Horace Greeley. The Hornets are now 10-2 this season.

The Hornet senior pitcher continued to grow after she threw a no-hitter against Panas, her third of the season.

She also no-hit John Jay-Cross River and Horace Greeley . The legend of Stella Bale continues to grow after she threw a no-

Bale struck out 16 Panas hitters. She also had a hit and scored a run. Hannah Matusiak and Shannon Scotto had RBI. Ryleigh Melendez had two hits.

Ava Knopf led the offense against Fox

Lane with two hits and three RBI. Bale collected three hits, scored three runs and drove in two. Scotto and Melendez each had two hits and scored a run. Johannsen had a hit and drove in two runs and scored twice and Jess Bleakley singled and had a run scored. Alana Espinoza struck out nine in five innings.

The Sailors opened the week with a 7-1 victory over Carmel. After Senior Day, Hen Hud followed it up with an 8-5 win over John Jay-Cross River as Sydney Muranaka and Lex Schaffer each had three hits, scored two runs and drove in two runs. Roberta had two runs in a 2-0 loss.

Bale and Scotto each had two hits and a RBI against Yorktown and Leah Cohen collected two hits and scored a run.

Following its three wins, Mahopac improved to 12-0 on the season and is currently ranked No. 1 in Class AA in New York, according to the New York State Sportswriters Association Poll.

“Our team this year is definitely special,” Becker said. “I think each of us know our role on the team and execute what needs to be done to help us win. Everyone does their job and when we put it together, everything falls into place.

“We have gelled together very nicely and work together as a team so I think that helps with success.”

LAKELAND continued its excellent season with three wins in four games -- Yorktown (3-0), Fox Lane (11-0) and Walter Panas (3-0). The legend of Stella Bale continues to grow after she threw a no-hitter against Panas, her third of the season.

She also no-hit John Jay-Cross River and Yorktown (3-0), Fox Lane (11-0) and Walter Panas (3-0). The legend of Stella Bale continues to grow after she threw a no-

LANZER's Hannah Matusiak compiled eight strikeouts in three innings.

The loss was a 1-0 verdict, in eight innings, to Arlington. In the loss, Bale rang up 16 Panas hitters. She also no-hit John Jay-Cross River and Horace Greeley. The Hornets are now 10-2 this season.

The Hornet senior pitcher continued to grow after she threw a no-hitter against Panas, her third of the season.

She also no-hit John Jay-Cross River and Horace Greeley . The legend of Stella Bale continues to grow after she threw a no-

Bale struck out 16 Panas hitters. She also had a hit and scored a run. Hannah Matusiak and Shannon Scotto had RBI. Ryleigh Melendez had two hits.

Ava Knopf led the offense against Fox

Lane with two hits and three RBI. Bale collected three hits, scored three runs and drove in two. Scotto and Melendez each had two hits and scored a run. Johannsen had a hit and drove in two runs and scored twice and Jess Bleakley singled and had a run scored. Alana Espinoza struck out nine in five innings.

The Sailors opened the week with a 7-1 victory over Carmel. After Senior Day, Hen Hud followed it up with an 8-5 win over John Jay-Cross River as Sydney Muranaka and Lex Schaffer each had three hits, scored two runs and drove in two runs. Roberta had two runs in a 2-0 loss.

Bale and Scotto each had two hits and a RBI against Yorktown and Leah Cohen collected two hits and scored a run.

Following its three wins, Mahopac improved to 12-0 on the season and is currently ranked No. 1 in Class AA in New York, according to the New York State Sportswriters Association Poll.

“Our team this year is definitely special,” Becker said. “I think each of us know our role on the team and execute what needs to be done to help us win. Everyone does their job and when we put it together, everything falls into place.

“We have gelled together very nicely and work together as a team so I think that helps with success.”

LAKELAND continued its excellent season with three wins in four games -- Yorktown (3-0), Fox Lane (11-0) and Walter Panas (3-0). The legend of Stella Bale continues to grow after she threw a no-hitter against Panas, her third of the season.

She also no-hit John Jay-Cross River and Horace Greeley. The Hornets are now 10-2 this season.

The loss was a 1-0 verdict, in eight innings, to Arlington. In the loss, Bale rang up 16 Panas hitters. She also no-hit John Jay-Cross River and Horace Greeley. The Hornets are now 10-2 this season.

The Hornet senior pitcher continued to grow after she threw a no-hitter against Panas, her third of the season.

She also no-hit John Jay-Cross River and Horace Greeley. The Hornets are now 10-2 this season.

The loss was a 1-0 verdict, in eight innings, to Arlington. In the loss, Bale rang up 16 Panas hitters. She also no-hit John Jay-Cross River and Horace Greeley. The Hornets are now 10-2 this season.

The Hornet senior pitcher continued to grow after she threw a no-hitter against Panas, her third of the season.

She also no-hit John Jay-Cross River and Horace Greeley. The Hornets are now 10-2 this season.

The loss was a 1-0 verdict, in eight innings, to Arlington. In the loss, Bale rang up 16 Panas hitters. She also no-hit John Jay-Cross River and Horace Greeley. The Hornets are now 10-2 this season.

The Hornet senior pitcher continued to grow after she threw a no-hitter against Panas, her third of the season.
and then against Pearls. The following Monday and Tuesday against Lakeland. We're starting to play well hopefully in time for sectionals.”

A young Putnam Valley team lost its three games, but the Tigers are continuing to improve.

The Tigers played in the Hen Hud Blue/White Tournament, but lost to Hen Hud in the first round and Fox Lane in the consolation game.

Freshman Olivia Dobra doubled, against Fox Lane, for her first varsity hit, and also registered her initial two varsity RBI. Fellow freshman Faith Marrero also collected her first varsity hit. Abigail Lowder had two hits, scored a run and drove in a run. Putnam Valley dropped an 8-7 verdict to Croton, which had beaten the Tigers by double-digits in their first meeting. Taylor Peduto singled, drove in two runs and walked three times. Kathleen Galletto, Ava Derella, Lowder and Marrero also had RBI for Putnam Valley.

Peekskill lost its two games -- Woodlands overcame Peekskill in a slugfest -- 32-30 -- and Ossining no-hit the Red Devils. Jealina Searight led Peekskill's offense against Woodlands with four hits, four runs scored and four RBI. Kaia Patterson chipped in two hits, three RBI and three runs scored. Bryonna Brothers and Evelyn Zumbo-Coello each scored five runs.

Veteran White Plains' varsity softball coach Ted O'Donnell was close in on a milestone, but he did not talk about it to his team.

Once the players learned that O'Donnell was nearing 400 varsity wins with White Plains, the Tigers' drive and determination increased to get it for him as quickly as possible.

“Once hearing that coach’s 400th was just one win away, our team was so psyched to help him achieve this goal,” said junior Alexa Galligani. “We became even more focused and serious. It became 100 percent of the time. It was critical that we gave back to him for all the sacrifices he has made for us. Such an accomplishment is not an easy task and he deserved every last bit of that win.”

O’Donnell, in his 25th year, reached the 400 mark with a 20-5 victory over New Rochelle. He joins Section 1 softball coaching legends with 400 or more wins -- Joan Spedafino (Rye Neck), Tom ‘Skip’ Walsh (Eastchester) and Tony Toronto (North Rockland/Nanuet). Walsh and Toronto are retired.

Galligani spearheaded the offense, ripping two home runs, including a grand slam, among her four hits. She also doubled and drove in six runs. Natasha Mendez delivered a two-run homer among her four RBI. Zoey Kovach added three hits and two RBI and Sasha Persaud and Ryleigh Falvey had three RBI apiece.

The always understated O’Donnell gave his players and coaches, throughout his career, the credit.

“The 400 wins over the past 25 seasons in a White Plains High School softball program is an accomplishment that so many have contributed to,” O’Donnell said. “First and foremost, I have had the privilege every season to coach talented, dedicated and selfless student-athletes who understand the meaning of team.

“I also share this milestone with the three other members of my coaching staff. Skip Stevens, who has been with me for 20 years, Chris Rowan, who has been with me for 10 years and long-time JV coach, Patty Gilmartin. This couldn’t have been achieved without them.”

Galligani knows something about what makes an excellent coach. Her father, Marcel, is the White Plains varsity baseball coach.

“It’s truly been an honor to play for a man like Coach O’Donnell,” Alexa Galligani said. “His ability to effectively communicate and teach the game is such a respectable trait of his. He’s always positive and sets defined goals for us that reinforce his key message, which is that anything is possible with hard work and dedication.

“Not only does he teach the game, he makes it fun and that makes it much more enjoyable on a daily basis. These are some abilities that most coaches don’t have and that makes coach stand out from the rest as such a great coach to play for.”

O’Donnell added his win No. 401 with a 9-4 triumph over Ursuline.

Alexa Galligani went for 4 for 4, including a home run, two doubles and three RBI. Younger sister Ava Galligani added two hits and two RBI. Falvey, Mendez and Kovach had two hits apiece and Darla Palombo had a run-scoring double. Eighth-grader Serena Gillen struck out 12 and allowed five hits for the 8-2 Tigers.

Fox Lane broke out in a huge way to snap a two-game losing streak. The Foxes erupted in a 20-5 win over Putnam Valley in the Hen Hud Blue/White Softball Championship consolation game. Fox Lane, now 4-5 on the season, won despite missing four starters and two captains.

Jordynn Killion struck out 13 and she had three hits, including a home run and a double. Victoria Bodine doubled, tripled and had five RBI and Katie Christiano doubled and homered.

“Victoria Bodine is only a freshman, but she came up and did very well for us,” Fox Lane coach Anthony Rodrigues said.

Valhalla won its game -- 17-1 over Westlake -- as Kathryn Wolfthal had three hits and Ava De Natale and Emma Levine added two hits apiece.

Members of the Hen Hud softball team pose with championship hardware after beating Put Valley and Rye Neck for title.

Somers’ Emily Bernhard makes the catch at first to get Yorktown’s Adrianna Albano.
Class B Stacked with Contenders, Briarcliff Clear Class C Favorites

By Ray Gallagher
Examiner Sports Editor @Directrays
& Rob DiAntonio @RJD_Photos

After defeating Mamaroneck for the first time in school history last week, Briarcliff went out and did the same thing to Yorktown this past week, knocking off the 40-time Section 1 champion, 9-6, for the first time ever. So, what more does Class C Briarcliff -- a team that knocked off Mamaroneck and Yorktown by a combined eight goals -- need to do to be declared No.1 overall in Section 1 this season? The mid-season loss to Rye is the only blemish on Coach Al Meola’s Bears, but Rye also defeated Yorktown, but lost to Mamaroneck and Lakeland/Panas, so, among the upper crust, there’s a good amount of parity across the section, regardless of classification.

The hope is that someone can step up in Class A to challenge reigning champion Mamaroneck to make for an interesting post-season, but that wish is fleeting as we get the sense nobody in Class A can stop the Tigers from winning their sixth Section 1 title since 2012, unless North Rockland can man up and find its way to the Red Raiders’ first title appearance ever and then shock the world.

Class B is another story altogether as three serious challengers seemingly emerge as legit postseason contenders, including Class B mainstay Yorktown, which is two years dry of a title, Rye (the reigning Class C champ) and Lakeland/Panas (which has appeared in four of the last five Class A title games, winning three times). That’s discounting two-time reigning champion John Jay CR and Mahopac, who aren’t quite on the same tier as the top three in mid-May (that, of course could change). Essentially, the Class B postseason will feature five teams that have won 27 sectional titles since 2005: Yorktown 11, John Jay 6, Rye 5, L/P 4, Mahopac 1 (though the Indians did win four between 2000-4). It’s hard to imagine a more tradition-rich field where home field advantage will certainly be a determining factor.

Class C is Briarcliff and everybody else, and Class D is beginning to look a lot like Bronxville, unless Pleasantville can summon the powers that provided four sectional titles and one state nugget since 2015.

CLASS B

Previously undefeated YORKTOWN fell on hard times last week, falling against some of the toughest competition in the state, falling 9-6 against Briarcliff, 9-8 in OT at Rye and then taking a 16-4 chin-shot in Saturday’s loss to No.1 nationally-ranked Long Island powerhouse St. Anthony’s. It’s hard to imagine a more tradition-rich field where home field advantage will certainly be a determining factor.

Consecutive losses have rarely dampened Yorktown’s title hopes because of the schedule they traditionally play, so Coach Sean Carney is banking on the two-straight losses as a learning experience.

“St. Anthony’s were on a different level,” Yorktown coach Sean Carney said. “We rested some guys today. We’re assessing who we are and how to beat our Class B opponents. We are very young. This is a good way to learn to battle, and we expect nothing less than a section title.”

Against Briarcliff, Harry Griff (2G). Will Briarcliff long pole Luca Meola gets a good press on Pleasantville’s Brennan McDermott in Bears’ 14-3 win over Panthers in annual Saw Mill Slugfest last Tuesday.

Briarcliff long pole Luca Meola gets a good press on Pleasantville’s Brennan McDermott in Bears’ 14-3 win over Panthers in annual Saw Mill Slugfest last Tuesday.

Ben Weinhoff of Byram Hills protects the ball near midfield from Fox Lane’s Matthew Magidson during the Bobcats’ 10-6 win.

Briarcliff long pole Aidan Murnane clears zone in Bears’ 14-3 win over Panthers in annual Saw Mill Slugfest last Tuesday.

Briarcliff's Elliot Jones takes a run at Pleasantville’s Matt Tucilio in Bears’ 14-3 win over Panthers in annual Saw Mill Slugfest last Tuesday.

Yorktown coach Sean Carney said. “We rested some guys today. We’re assessing who we are and how to beat our Class B opponents. We are very young. This is a good way to learn to battle, and we expect nothing less than a section title.”

Against Briarcliff, Harry Griff (2G). Will Briarcliff long pole Aidan Murnane clears zone in Bears’ 14-3 win over Panthers in annual Saw Mill Slugfest last Tuesday.

continued on next page
Embury (1G, 1A) and Dylan Beck (1G, 1A) each scored two points.

In the loss to Rye, Griff (3G, 1A), Beck (2G, 1A) and Brendan Regan (2G) did the bulk of the scoring, but a bad pass and a freak ending was all it took for Rye to re-establish itself as the team to beat. Owen Kovacs scored the game’s two final goals to snatch victory from the jaws of defeat.

The Huskers began the week in fancy fashion, taking out MAHOPAC, 13-4. Embury’s five points (2G, 3A) paced the Huskers, who had an 8-2 lead at the half. Beck scored twice and set up another while Spencer Norris scored twice and Jack Duncan added one goal and one assist. Mahopac’s Danny Koch, Matthew Puckhaber, Jake Degnan and John Kearney each had a goal.

Mahopac bounced back with a strong fourth quarter in a 14-4 win over host CARMEL Friday. Carmel senior captain Ryan McDonald scored three goals to let the Rams hang around for three quarters, but the youthful Indians pulled away behind a career effort from sophomore Ryan Geoghegan, who notched four goals and one assist. Freshman Danny Koch, who looks like a keeper, added three goals and two assists and junior Mike Harney had four points (2G, 2A) while slick sophomore Jake Degnan had two goals and an assist. Bullish Chris Evans went 18 for 22 at the X for Mahopac and G Brett Crecco made seven saves.

LAKELAND/PANAS had a bit of a head-scratching week. The Rebels went 3-1 with a tough 11-10 loss to Fox Lane, which was the head-scratching portion of the week. The Foxes have had a solid campaign but if the Rebels plan on challenging the likes of Yorktown and Rye in Class B, they need to knock off Class A teams like Fox Lane. The Rebels (8-3) recovered with dominating wins over Lourdes and Ossining and Pleasantville.

Lakeland/Panas finished the week with 34 continued on next page

Byram Hills sophomore middie Gavin Javorsky lines up a shot in the Bobcats’ road win over Fox Lane on Friday afternoon.

Sweet-stroking Mahopac sophomore Jake Degnan takes run at cage in visiting Indians’ 14-4 win over rival Carmel Friday.

continued from previous page

Byram Hills sophomore middie Gavin Javorsky lines up a shot in the Bobcats’ road win over Fox Lane on Friday afternoon.

Carmel captain Ryan McDonald scored three times for the Rams in 14-4 loss to Mahopac. goals in two games, including a 17-4 rout of OSSINING when Nick Graap scored eight points (3G, 5A). Reed Thompson tickled twine five times and set up another while Liam Burke and Tyler Nocito each went for a hat trick. Caden Hallinan had a goal and two assists for the Pride, while teammate Ian Denzer scored twice.

Lakeland/Panas put its best foot forward in a 17-6 win over Pleasantville Saturday when Thompson and Graap each put a five-spot on the Panthers. Burke added four goals and an assist while Conor Hufnagel set up three goals and scored another.

BREWSTER is finally making some noise, winning three in a row after a 17-4 defeat of Lourdes. Joe Anfuso set a career-high with six goals and connected with feeder Clay Harrison (6A) often.

CLASS C/D

BRIARCLIFF staked its claim as Section 1’s top team with an eye-opening 9-6 win over host Yorktown last Friday. It was the Bears’ first win over the Huskers in program history. The overwhelming Class C favorite Bears jumped out to a 4-1 lead and had the answer each time Yorktown went on a run.

“It meant a lot to us as a group,” Bears coach Al Meola said. “I’m not sure our guys even understand the magnitude of going to Charlie Murphy Field and winning against 40-time sectional champs. What’s more impressive is the countless texts and phone calls and emails from Yorktown alumni, who took their time to reach out and congratulate us. That is first class!”

Brandon Rispoli paced Briarcliff with three goals and an assist. Matt Waterhouse added three goals and Jack Ricciardi tallied a goal and three assists. Evan Van Camp made nine saves in net.

Briarcliff began the week by cruising past rival PLEASANTVILLE, 14-3, in the annual Saw Mill Slugfest last Tuesday. Elliot Jones (4G, 3A), Rispoli (3G, 1A), Ricciardi (2G, 2A), Nico Santucci (2G), Lucas Proctor (4A), Kyle Proctor (1G, 2A), Aidan Murnane (1G) and Van Camp (10 saves) led the way.

The Bears traveled to WESTLAKE the next day and posted another blowout in the form of a 17-3 pounding. Jones dished out five assists and had a goal. Ricciardi tallied two goals and three assists and Lucas Proctor had a hat trick. Rispoli, Josh Newman and Murnane each had two goals. Alex Kishenbaum (1G, 3A) and Santucci (1G, 2A) also contributed. Anthony DeLuca netted two goals for the Wildcats.

The 7-1 Bears have rattled off five straight wins since a loss to Rye a few weeks ago.

BYRAM HILLS (7-2) might be Briarcliff’s top competition in Class C and the Bobcats continue to impress each week. A shorthanded Byram squad pulled off a 10-6 road win over Class A’s FOX LANE last Friday.

“This win over a really talented Fox Lane team shows the passion and bonds that we have in our program,” Byram senior Hayden Fruhling said. “Before the game we spoke about playing for the brother next to you for 48 minutes and we did just that.”

The Bobcats, who jumped out to a 7-4 halftime lead, were paced by Fruhling’s four goals. Gavin Javorsky (2G) and Matt Quintiere (1G, 2A) also chimed in. Sean Siegel had a goal and scooped up eight ground balls.

“The key offensively was to play smart and value possessions,” Fruhling said. “Knowing that we had Benny (Rakower) in net and two underclassmen on defense starting in their first varsity game, we wanted to have the ball on the offensive end as much as possible. We played selfless and moved the ball, which allowed us to get open opportunities after drawing a slide. (Ben) Weinhoff (14 of 19 face-offs) made our lives a lot easier with yet another dominant performance at the face-off X.”

Rakower, a junior, moved from midfield to make his first ever start in net and made 11 crucial saves.

“Benny was amazing in between the pipes,” Fruhling said. “Obviously, Benny’s older brother (Griffen) was a star during his time at Byram and was possibly the best goalie to ever come through the program, so he helped Benny out when we found out we may need him to step in. It was amazing to see how confident and poised Benny was in
continued from previous page
net and he made some eye-opening saves.”

Behind five goals and four assists from Fruhling, Byram cruised past HORACE GREELEY, 13-4, last Wednesday. Jake Teitelbaum (3G, 1A), Rakower (1G, 4A),
Zach Pero (1G, 2A), Javorsky (1G, 1A),
Weinhoff (1G, 5 GBs), Quintiere (1G, 1A), Siegel (1G, 3 GBs) and Jack Quinn (9 saves) helped stuff the stat sheet.

The Bobcats started their three-win week by defeating Harrison 12-5 on Monday behind Rakower (3G, 2A), Fruhling (2G, 1A), Teitelbaum (1G, 1A), Javorsky (2G), Michael Oronzio (2G), Siegel (1G, 6 GBs) and Quinn (10 saves).

WESTLAKE rebounded from the loss to Briarcliff with a 15-10 victory over Clarkstown North on Thursday. Andrew Llamas (4G, 2A), Connor Cronin (4G, 1A), Tyler Howard (2G, 3A) and Anthony DelDuca (3G, 2A) paced the Wildcats.

The Wildcats improved to 4-4 with a 12-8 win over Nyack on Saturday. Matt Sardo and DelDuca each netted three goals while Llamas tallied with a goal and three assists.

PLEASANTVILLE fell to Class D favorite Bronxville 12-6 last Thursday. Ryan Challice (2G, 1A), Nick Bates (2G) and Brennan McDermott (2A) contributed for the Panthers.

The Panthers (7-5) dropped their fifth-straight game in a 17-6 loss to Lakeland/Panas on Saturday. Challice and McDermott had three goals apiece.

PUTNAM VALLEY should be eyeballing nothing less than a Final 4 appearance after the surging Tigers -- winners of sixstraight games -- netted a 9-8 overtime win over visiting HEN HUD Saturday. PV junior A Ryan Denilke set up senior M Ethan Mounier, who bagged his sixth goal of the game at 3:10 of OT. Denilke, silky smooth around the net, finished with four assists while G Roger Raimo returned to make 16 saves. Hen Hud scored three goals in the fourth quarter to tie the game with 2:50
left. Rocco Capicotti notched a hat trick for the Sailors, who got two goals from Tom Popolizio and Dean Hiltssley. The 8-4 Tigers got contributions from a handful of others,
including Jack Murphy (1G, 1A), Garrett
Leitman (1G), and Hayden Gumbrecht (1G).

“This was a big win for us against a very good team,” PV Coach Tim Weir said. “We are playing decent lax now. Class C has really good teams, but we are taking it ground ball
to ground ball, possession to possession, quarter to quarter and game to game. Our guys are working very hard knowing that they are lucky enough to have a season.”

Capicotti (6G, 1A) and Hiltssley (4G, 1A)
were all over visiting Croton on senior night
when the Sailors honored the memory of former Sailor David Palmisano (1993) with a 17-5 win.

CLASS A

FOX LANE (7-3) earned a huge 11-
10 win over visiting Lakeland/Panas last Tuesday. Jack Cicchelli (3G, 3A) picked up
a loose ball near midfield, jetted for the net
and finished with four assists while G Roger Raimo returned to make 16
saves. Hen Hud scored three goals in the fourth quarter to tie the game with 2:50
left. Rocco Capicotti notched a hat trick for
the Sailors, who got two goals from Tom
Popolizio and Dean Hiltssley. The 8-4 Tigers
got contributions from a handful of others,
including Jack Murphy (1G, 1A), Garrett
Leitman (1G), and Hayden Gumbrecht (1G).

“This was a big win for us against a very good team,” PV Coach Tim Weir said. “We are playing decent lax now. Class C has really good teams, but we are taking it ground ball
to ground ball, possession to possession,
quarter to quarter and game to game. Our
guys are working very hard knowing that
they are lucky enough to have a season.”

Capicotti (6G, 1A) and Hiltssley (4G, 1A)
were all over visiting Croton on senior night
when the Sailors honored the memory of
former Sailor David Palmisano (1993) with a 17-5 win.

CLASS A

FOX LANE (7-3) earned a huge 11-
10 win over visiting Lakeland/Panas last
Tuesday. Jack Cicchelli (3G, 3A) picked up
a loose ball near midfield, jetted for the net
and finished with four assists while G Roger Raimo returned to make 16
saves. Hen Hud scored three goals in the fourth quarter to tie the game with 2:50
left. Rocco Capicotti notched a hat trick for
the Sailors, who got two goals from Tom
Popolizio and Dean Hiltssley. The 8-4 Tigers
got contributions from a handful of others,
including Jack Murphy (1G, 1A), Garrett
Leitman (1G), and Hayden Gumbrecht (1G).

“This was a big win for us against a very good team,” PV Coach Tim Weir said. “We are playing decent lax now. Class C has really good teams, but we are taking it ground ball
to ground ball, possession to possession,
quarter to quarter and game to game. Our
guys are working very hard knowing that
they are lucky enough to have a season.”

Capicotti (6G, 1A) and Hiltssley (4G, 1A)
were all over visiting Croton on senior night
when the Sailors honored the memory of
former Sailor David Palmisano (1993) with a 17-5 win.

CLASS A

FOX LANE (7-3) earned a huge 11-
10 win over visiting Lakeland/Panas last
Tuesday. Jack Cicchelli (3G, 3A) picked up
a loose ball near midfield, jetted for the net
and finished with four assists while G Roger Raimo returned to make 16
saves. Hen Hud scored three goals in the fourth quarter to tie the game with 2:50
left. Rocco Capicotti notched a hat trick for
the Sailors, who got two goals from Tom
Popolizio and Dean Hiltssley. The 8-4 Tigers
get contributions from a handful of others,
including Jack Murphy (1G, 1A), Garrett
Leitman (1G), and Hayden Gumbrecht (1G).

“This was a big win for us against a very good team,” PV Coach Tim Weir said. “We are playing decent lax now. Class C has really good teams, but we are taking it ground ball
to ground ball, possession to possession,
quarter to quarter and game to game. Our
guys are working very hard knowing that
they are lucky enough to have a season.”

Capicotti (6G, 1A) and Hiltssley (4G, 1A)
were all over visiting Croton on senior night
when the Sailors honored the memory of
former Sailor David Palmisano (1993) with a 17-5 win.

CLASS A

FOX LANE (7-3) earned a huge 11-
10 win over visiting Lakeland/Panas last
Tuesday. Jack Cicchelli (3G, 3A) picked up
a loose ball near midfield, jetted for the net
and finished with four assists while G Roger Raimo returned to make 16
saves. Hen Hud scored three goals in the fourth quarter to tie the game with 2:50
left. Rocco Capicotti notched a hat trick for
the Sailors, who got two goals from Tom
Popolizio and Dean Hiltssley. The 8-4 Tigers
get contributions from a handful of others,
including Jack Murphy (1G, 1A), Garrett
Leitman (1G), and Hayden Gumbrecht (1G).

“This was a big win for us against a very good team,” PV Coach Tim Weir said. “We are playing decent lax now. Class C has really good teams, but we are taking it ground ball
to ground ball, possession to possession,
quarter to quarter and game to game. Our
guys are working very hard knowing that
they are lucky enough to have a season.”

Capicotti (6G, 1A) and Hiltssley (4G, 1A)
were all over visiting Croton on senior night
when the Sailors honored the memory of
former Sailor David Palmisano (1993) with a 17-5 win.

CLASS A

FOX LANE (7-3) earned a huge 11-
10 win over visiting Lakeland/Panas last
Tuesday. Jack Cicchelli (3G, 3A) picked up
a loose ball near midfield, jetted for the net
and finished with four assists while G Roger Raimo returned to make 16
saves. Hen Hud scored three goals in the fourth quarter to tie the game with 2:50
left. Rocco Capicotti notched a hat trick for
the Sailors, who got two goals from Tom
Popolizio and Dean Hiltssley. The 8-4 Tigers
get contributions from a handful of others,
including Jack Murphy (1G, 1A), Garrett
Leitman (1G), and Hayden Gumbrecht (1G).

“This was a big win for us against a very good team,” PV Coach Tim Weir said. “We are playing decent lax now. Class C has really good teams, but we are taking it ground ball
to ground ball, possession to possession,
quarter to quarter and game to game. Our
guys are working very hard knowing that
they are lucky enough to have a season.”

Capicotti (6G, 1A) and Hiltssley (4G, 1A)
were all over visiting Croton on senior night
when the Sailors honored the memory of
former Sailor David Palmisano (1993) with a 17-5 win.

CLASS A

FOX LANE (7-3) earned a huge 11-
10 win over visiting Lakeland/Panas last
Tuesday. Jack Cicchelli (3G, 3A) picked up
a loose ball near midfield, jetted for the net
and finished with four assists while G Roger Raimo returned to make 16
saves. Hen Hud scored three goals in the fourth quarter to tie the game with 2:50
left. Rocco Capicotti notched a hat trick for
the Sailors, who got two goals from Tom
Popolizio and Dean Hiltssley. The 8-4 Tigers
get contributions from a handful of others,
including Jack Murphy (1G, 1A), Garrett
Leitman (1G), and Hayden Gumbrecht (1G).

“This was a big win for us against a very good team,” PV Coach Tim Weir said. “We are playing decent lax now. Class C has really good teams, but we are taking it ground ball
to ground ball, possession to possession,
quarter to quarter and game to game. Our
guys are working very hard knowing that
they are lucky enough to have a season.”

Capicotti (6G, 1A) and Hiltssley (4G, 1A)
were all over visiting Croton on senior night
when the Sailors honored the memory of
former Sailor David Palmisano (1993) with
a 17-5 win.
FOCUS ON GIRLS LAX

Briarcliff Nips Westlake, Mahopac Deals L/P Crushing Loss, Yorktown Cruises over L/P

Westlake’s Francesca DeMartino wins a draw from Briarcliff’s Grace Wicke in Wildcats’ 15-11 loss to Bears.

Briarcliff’s Ava Swidler makes her move as Westlake’s Alexa Hudd tries to stay with her in Bears’ 15-11 win.

Talented Yorktown sophomore Alex Scialdone (L) had 5G in rout of L-P and teammates Sophia Spallone (12) and Kaitlin Regan celebrate her goal.

Putnam Valley’s Cat O’Sullivan (7G, 1A) had career day in 16-3 win over Beacon.

Briarcliff’s Maeve Donoghue collects a loose ball as Westlake’s Aileen Walsh converges.

Westlake’s Gianna Eglauh heads up the field in 15-11 loss to Briarcliff last Friday.

Mahopac junior captain Ava Jennings went for eight goals to seal deal in 13-11 come-from-behind win over L-P Thursday.
Briarcliff’s Grace Wickey looks to pass while Westlake’s Scarlett Feighan and Eliana Barnett bring pressure in the Bears’ 15-11 victory.

Westlake’s Kaitlin Schliman slices through Briarcliff’s Paola Galiano and Cassie Lawler in Wildcats’ 15-11 loss to Bears.

Gifted sophomores -- Yorktown’s Alex Scialdone and Hen Hud’s Katherine Couch -- square off in recent Sailor win.

With 2G in 13-11 win over L-P, Mahopac junior captain Avery Przymylski now has 25 G for the 6-5 Indians.
Crash Averted!

Charging Yorktown Lands Safely in Come-From-Behind Wins over Somers, Mahopac

Yorktown’s Stephen Haglund was out at the plate when Somers catcher Evan Carway applied the tag last Thursday, but the barrelling Huskers managed a 10-0 victory after coming from behind in Tuesday’s 8-6 win over the Tuskers. Yorktown continued to avoid a crash in Saturday’s 14-8 extra-inning win over host Mahopac, rallying from a 7-3 deficit to post their 11th win in 12 tries... see Baseball Notebook