Until Saturday's 3-1 loss to Class A host Mamaroneck, reigning NYS Class B champion Lakeland High had not lost a Section 1 field hockey game since the 2008 Section 1 Class B finals against Putnam Valley, an unprecedented streak spanning 211 games over 12 years, which also included 10 NYS championships and 11 regional titles. Surprisingly, none of this is a misprint, which is why senior captains Keirra Ettere (7), Emma Fon (6) and their teammates (inset) were proud to walk away from Thursday's 2-1 win over 2019 NYS Class A runner-up Horace Greeley with heads held high no matter the next outcome... see Field Hockey Notebook

Carmel Sweeps Arlington, Remains Unbeaten; Panas Ties Yorktown Class A Somers, Class B Pleasantville Hitting Stride

By Ray Gallagher
Examiner Sports Editor@Directrays

If you read this notebook regularly, you knew before anyone that Section 1 would opt against hosting sectional championships in all competitive fall sports due to coronavirus concerns. Instead, as we told you last week, Section 1 has devised a regional tournament plan that will crown six champions in all: two in Southern Westchester (large and small schools), two in Northern Westchester/Putnam (large and small schools), one in Dutchess and one in Rockland.

CLASS AA

So, nobody remembers the last time CARMEL controlled their own destiny in terms of a league title; that's because it's never happened, according to first-year Coach Vasily Shevelchinsky.

"It's exciting to think about it, but we don't think it's ever been done at Carmel," the coach said after his Rams swept Arlington last Wednesday.

John Jay EF, which Carmel already defeated once, and RCK (2X) remain on the league docket, but the Rams control their own destiny after improving to 6-0 after a nifty cross from senior AJ Patino was headed home by senior JD Vargas in the waning moments of a 1-0 win over the Admirals, once the undeniable kings of the AA-North league.

Carmel G Joe Galeano made nine crucial saves for the clean sheet.

"With this congested schedule and barely any time to prepare in preseason makes it tough on all of us," Shevelchinsky said. "Most teams have players banged up due to that. We have these quick turnarounds after each game with no recovery time, but this is where other players need to step up as well.

Carmel senior JD Vargas scored game-winning goal in 1-0 win over visiting Arlington Wednesday.

The team believes in each other.

"I have to also thank the previous varsity coach (Tony Greco)," he added. "He was my high school coach and took me under his wing when I got into coaching. Having the same assistant (Kyle Cassidy) last few years has been a huge help as well, but it's all about these kids. They have stepped it up."

The Rams survived the Mahopac match last Monday with a 2-1 victory. Dylan Bates crossed the game-winning setup to Simon Douglas, who has emerged as a top sniper.

Nick Biagini, who is having a big season for the scrappy Indians, netted the lone Mahopac tally.

WHITE PLAINS senior M Eric Ramirez kept the Tigers in the unbeaten ranks with their lone goal in a 1-1 tie with Mamaroneck in what might have been a prelude to the Southern Westchester Large School regional championship game.

OSSINING striker Kevon Evans crossed over the Arlington goalie 12 minutes in to a 2-0 triumph over the Admirals, from Andrew Herran. Young Robert Mora provided some cushion when he tickled twine off an assist from Yohance Douglas. Matt Mione (5 saves) notched the shutout for the Pride, who were also knocked off by Class A Greeley.

CLASS A

YORKTOWN discovered it cannot rest on its laurels after a 3-3 tie with PANAS, who put the lone blemish (a tie) on Yorktown's 8-0-1 record.

"It was a tough game, but you have to give Panas the respect they deserve," Yorktown junior striker George Popovic said. "They came out firing, playing like it was their last game of the season. We were flat the whole game, taking it lightly and it showed in the final score. We took that game as a learning experience: It shows we can't underestimate any opponent and we have to treat our following games like it's our last."

Panas got a big dose of confidence when hotshot Kyle Arraiano headed home the game-tying score for the Panthers with a minute to play in regulation off a feed from Eddie Chicaiza, off a free kick. Alexsander Ramirez gave Panas a 1-0 lead. Husker Mason Murphy tied the game and Chris Judge converted a penalty kick to give the Huskers a 2-1 halftime lead. Panas' Aidan Cole tied the score at 2-all, but David Dippolito had Yorktown back on top until the 79th minute.

"Overtime was a game of runs," Panas boss Peter Prysclak said. "I have to say that my boys rose to the occasion, playing a well-coached disciplined Yorktown team. We have great respect for that program and the season they are having. Hats off to Yorktown. We've been playing better and better each game. They boys have bought in and I'm proud of this team. In unprecedented times, we never know when our season will end. We're focusing on one game at a time."

Panas G Kyle Rizzo made eight saves to keep them in the match.

Yorktown also defeated John Jay-CR, 2-1 when Chris Judge erased a 1-0 deficit and George Popovic fought through a couple of tackles to bag the game-winner five minutes into the second half. Husker David D'Ippolito set up both goals for the Huskers, who are holding firm to the No.1 seed in the N.West/Put regional (large schools).

SOMERS is getting it going, just ask LAKELAND, whom the Tuskers defeated 6-2 and John Jay CR, which was on the shy side of a 7-0 whipping. Against Lakeland, Zane Bramson (2G, 2A), Jacques Verard, Daniel D'Ippolito, Jake Riina and Jack Silverman all tickled twine. Austin Beyeh and Sonny Sanchez kept the Hornets close.

Against Jay, junior hotshot Bennett Leitner scored twice in the first 30 minutes. Verard also scored a pair for the Tuskers, who saw Daniel D'Ippolito (1G, 1A) return with a flurry.

Lakeland finished off a pesky BREWSTER club, 3-2, when Derek Jaramillo scored with four minutes remaining to complete the 24-hour sweep of the Bears. Jaramillo (2G, 1A) and Sonny Karaqi (1G, 1A) did the damage up top. Bear Carlos Palma scored twice.

GREELEY is finally starting to reach its potential after a 4-0 win over WESTLAKE and a 3-2 triumph of reigning Class AA champion Ossining.

"So far, so good," Greeley Coach Camp Shropshire said of the recent streak. "We've got Briarcliff and Edgemont before closing with White Plains; a three great games close to the season. Everything this season has been a gift, which we're glad to be a part of."

Against Westlake, senior captain Owen Parsons took a Diego Weiss feed for a 1-0 lead. Bennett Shropshire made it 3-0 from Simon Margolis and Dominick Larizza was set up by Alex Kassel in the second half, which was more than enough support for Quaker G Joe Lamb (3 saves) and the Greeley defense to sign off on a clean sheet.

In Greeley's 3-2 win over Ossining, Shropshire laced the game-winning goal with eight minutes left, drilling a Jared Damon feed. Shrops' also netted the game's first goal before Ossining hotshot Kevon Evans tied the score at 1-all 13 minutes into the second half. Greeley's feisty M Zach Eichenberg gave the Quakers a 2-1 lead but the Pride's Lucas Zabarburu knotted things up again with 20 minutes to go.

PEEKSKILL broke open a close 3-0 win over PUTNAM VALLEY with three goals over the final 25 minutes. Johnny Moroch, Cesar Culajay and Lusvin Lopez each scored as the Red Devs (6-3) continued to surge.

Examiner Area Top 10 Boys' Soccer Poll

No.1 YORKTOWN -- Coach Polchinski's Class A Huskers (8-0-1) got the wakeup call they needed in the Panas tie, which is what the doctored ordered with this ridiculous bracket of contenders in the North. West/Putnam large school regional tourney, which includes 4 Class AA clubs (Carmel, Ossining, Fox Lane, Mahopac).

No.2 SOMERS -- Coach Lanzetta's Class A Tuskers (7-2) are back to full health and should force some issues in the North. West/Putnam large school regional tourney; some might call them the favorites -- when fully healthy -- despite two losses to Yorktown.

No.3 WHITE PLAINS -- Coach Lambert's Class AA Tigers (5-0-3) should find their way to South. West. Regional finals, which might pit the Tigers against Mam'neck (8-0-1). Do not sleep on defending Class A champ Rye (7-0-2)

No.4 CARMEL -- Coach Vasily Shevchinsky's Class AA Rams (6-0) will operate out of the North. West/Putnam large school regional tourney and (can't believe I'm saying this) could be a Final 4 or bust club.

No.5 BYRAM HILLS -- Stricken by COVID-19 closures, Coach Allen's Class A Bobcats (4-0-1) will be in the North. West/Putnam large school regional tourney should the Hills ever re-open and get their beloved Bobcats back on the pitch. They'd have to be the post-season favorites if they do.

No.6 PLEASANTVILLE -- Coach Moriki's Class B Panthers (6-1-1) were placed in the South. West/Putnam small school

CLASS B

PLEASANTVILLE remains the talk of Class B after an 8-1 win over Croton saw the Panthers improve to 5-1-1. Panther Mikey Collins scored twice for the surging Panthers. Tommy McPhee, Billy Riccardi, Mike Saldana, Arjun Singh, Connor Whynott and Will Peacock also scored, several getting choice feeds from Nikian Sautoff (3A). Croton's lone tally came via Patrick Fleming. Collins added a goal and assist in P'Ville's 2-0 win over Rye Neck. Peacock added the other tally.

"We're very proud of the boys and the support from our families during these tough COVID times," P'Ville Coach Beau Morki said. "A big thank you to our families and the environment they help create, going above and beyond to stay safe so we can still be playing. Many teams have been forced to quarantine, so we are lucky we are still playing.

"The boys have bonded in a positive way," he added. "We're very proud of their accomplishments thus far, but we take every game one at a time. Our captains remind the team constantly of one of our team co-constructed goals, which is to play every game like it's Carmel senior Simon Douglas, who has been superb, takes run in Rams' 1-0 win over visiting Arlington Wednesday.

our last, and to stay out of their comfort zones, so they can keep getting better. We have a hunger for the game and aren't satisfied yet. The boys know they are capable of anything as long as they do it together. The fire is still burning and looking forward to our next game."

VALHALLA finally got out of quarantine and produced a 2-0 win over Hamilton when Leo Perna bagged his first varsity goal for a 1-0 lead. Josh Moulard set him up and Luca Secola provided the final margin off an assist from Thomas Casale. Viking G Jonah Strupinsky (4 saves) notched the shutout.

In WESTLAKE's 1-0 win over BRIAR-CLIFF Gianluca Ruggiero scored his fifth goal of the season as Westlake improved to 3-1 in league play, 3-3 overall. Francesco Michilli led the defense to a second-straight home shutout.

Like he has all season Carmel junior Tayte Wong gets loose in Rams' 1-0 win over visiting Arlington Wednesday.

regional tourney and could be on a collision course with undefeated Bronxville (8-0).

No.7 HORACE GREELEY -- Coach Camp's Class A Quakers (6-3) are as hot as a pistol now and will force opponents in the North. West/Putnam large school regional tourney to take notice.

No.8 OSSINING -- Coach Scamarone's Class AA Pride (6-5) can do damage in the North. West/Putnam large school regional tourney should they find their scoring touch.

No.9 PANAS -- Coach Pryscklak's Class A Panthers (2-3-2) could be a legit sleeper in the North. West/Putnam small school regional tourney.

No.10 MAHOPAC -- Don't put it past Coach Mully's Class AA Indians (2-7-1) to bust up a bracket in the North. West/Putnam large school regional tourney.

HM PEEKSKILL -- Coach Iasillo's Class A Red Devs (6-3) need a real quality W before we ingest them into the sleeper conversation in the North. West/Putnam small school regional tourney. Nonetheless, respect!

HM LAKELAND -- Don't put it past Coach Hourahan's Class A Hornets (3-5-1) to make a serious run in the North. West/Putnam small school regional tourney. Love to see Lakeland vs. Byram to simulate an old-school sectional match.

Lakeland's 211 Game Section 1 Unbeaten Streak Over, Never Forgotten Hornets Nip Greeley, Fall at Mamaroneck in Clashes of Titans

By Ray Gallagher
Examiner Sports Editor@Directrays

In 2008, U.S. President Barack Obama had just won the first of two terms; NY Giant WR David Tyree's improbable catch in Super Bowl 42 set up Eli Manning's game-winning TD pass to Plaxico Burress and denied the New England Patriots a perfect season; Breaking Bad was just getting started; and the Lakeland High field hockey team lost to Putnam Valley in the Section 1 Class B finals.

Since then, Obama went two terms before the country tuned him out by tuning in Donald J. Trump over Hillary Clinton; the Giants have encountered portions of their worst stretch in history; Breaking Bad ran for five incredible seasons before the short-lived Better Call Saul prequel; and 13-time NYSPHSAA champion Lakeland, which has won 10 of the last 11 Class B state titles, went 211-straight games without a loss to a Section 1 opponent until last Saturday's 3-1 loss to Class A Mamaroneck.

RAY GALLAGHER/BOB CASTNER

Lakeland Coach Sharon Sarsen's Hornets outlasted them all, and, along the way, set the standard for NYS field hockey programs while setting the Section 1 record for consecutive unbeaten games.

"It's been an absolute honor and pleasure to lead this field hockey program through each and every day," Sarsen said. "The longevity of this 'streak' was unbelievable, and often had me shaking my head in disbelief that it had truly been so long. The amount of big games and big performances by so, so, so many athletes that have worn our uniform is also hard to fathom. Just proves how amazing these girls are. They were able to overcome the burden and pressure and still shine so brightly."

Sarsen challenges her girls in different ways to be the best they can be on and off the field, and they've all bought in over the course of her 39-year career.

"I always challenge the adages such as 'you can't win them all', or 'you gotta lose sometimes' by arguing, 'yes you can' and 'no you don't'."

The streak is over, but there's no end in sight for Sars, a John Jay CR and SUNY Cortland grad.

"I'm hoping we get the chance to start a new 'streak' Monday against Lourdes, and I hope I'm around for another 211!"

Sarsen knew darn well back in September when she built her schedule that her youthful club would be pushed to the limit by perennial Class A powers Mamaroneck and 2019 NYS Class A runner-up Horace Greeley within a span of three days, so to come away with a spilt, including Thursday's 2-1 win over the Quakers, wasn't so bad after all.

Lakeland D Emily McGovern stepped up her game in Hornets' 2-1 win over Greeley's Stephanie Novick (L) and the Quakers Thursday.

Mamaroneck is nobody's slouch and Coach John Savage has spent the last quarter century challenging Sarsen's Hornets and molding his teams in their image. He leant some spectacular perspective to the streak.

"First, the respect I have for Sharon Sarsen and the girls who have played for her cannot be justified by words," Savage said. "It is something you are just amazed by. Many years ago I modeled my program after hers, although I have never come close to accomplishing what she and the girls have achieved. Their work ethic and character are to be admired. They arrived at Mamaroneck as champions and left as champions.

Gracious would not do them justice when trying to describe how they reacted when the game ended. They gave all a team could give but tonight was just not their night.

"So, 211 is a number that will be forever remembered by everyone in Section 1 because of the many individuals who played a part in it," Savage added. "How tough they played, the time put in by coaches and players, parents and the community to support the program is remarkable. In my opinion, we have all been treated to an amazing accomplishment that I believe will never be beaten. Also, in all those contests the Lakeland program always looked to play the best competition. It takes skill to be the best and character to stay there. That should resulted in two unanswered goals, which gave Mamo' its first win over Lakeland since 2004, thus ending an unbeaten streak of 211 games; unlike anything ever seen in Section 1 history.

Against Greeley (8-1), Lakeland's Jaden Ray (6G, 12A) and Keirra Ettre (20G, 6A) each scored and assisted on the other goal, both coming off corners in the early stages of the first quarter. Meanwhile, Lakeland D Emily McGovern shadowed Greeley stud and Colgate-bound Lily Schoonmaker, who finally broke through late in the fourth for the Quakers' only score. It was the first goal of the season against Hornet sophomore G Celeste Pagliaroli. McGovern had a defensive save with about 10 minutes left in the third quarter and off-coursed a Greeley shot off a corner early in the fourth quarter that seemed labeled for a goal. The entire Lakeland defense and mid-field were sharp on stops and clears.

"I'm shocked," said Sarsen, the Lakeland Copper Beech Middle School athletic coordinator and a physical education teacher. "Our defense is so inexperienced. They bent and did not break. Emily McGovern was clutch marking Lily Schoonmaker. We competed and corners are becoming a strength."

We knew how great they were," said Lakeland senior Emma Fon, who has 12G and 5A this season. "We knew we were going to have to play our best game ever and we talked about that in practice and before the tell you something about Coach Sarsen and her many players."

Sarsen knew coming in, after losing a ton to graduation, that her team would be pushed to new limits in 2020, a year that was anything but normal, due to coronavirus protocols and the late start to an abbreviated season with no sectional or state tournaments.

"I thought we stole one against Greeley, and I was okay with that," said Sarsen, the Westchester County, NYSPHSAA and National Field Hockey Coaches Association Hall of Famer.

Against undefeated Mamaroneck, the Hornets (8-1) and Tigers were tied at 1-all through three quarters before a pair of defensive breakdowns on the Lakeland end game. We need our A-game and we brought it. Our defense played very, very strong, quick to the ball and they kept their feet moving against their very strong players. Everybody just came to the game prepared.

"We don't really focus on our past, instead we focus on our future," Fon said of the streak. "We know that we need to play our best for each other, not for our legacy."

Greeley did not come out sharp. Lakeland can bring out the jitters, and the Quakers were overwhelmed early on, allowing two quick corners, and the Hornets banged the boards each time. The final three quarters were a different story, Greeley a different team, forcing the issue while playing from behind for the first time all year.

"First quarter we came out slow, a little bit nervous," Greeley Coach Sukhi Sandhu admitted. "The last three quarters we had better planning and we stepped up. We felt like another three, four minutes and we might catch them. They are an experienced team and they know how to waste the time and that makes a big difference. If we had more time, it should be a different game. But they are a different team than any other in the section, smart and experienced."

NOTES: If you read this notebook regularly, you knew before anyone that Section 1 would opt against hosting sectional championships in all competitive fall sports due to coronavirus concerns. Instead, as we told you last week, Section 1 has devised a regional tournament plan that will crown six champions in all: two in Southern Westchester (large and small schools), two in Northern Westchester/Putnam (large and small schools), one in Dutchess and one in Rockland.
